Title I Parent-School Compact 2025-26

Washington Early Elementary, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the challenging State academic standards.

School responsibilities

- Provide high-quality education: Offer high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive learning environment.
- Report student progress: Provide frequent reports on a child's academic and behavioral progress, including through conferences and student work samples.
- Communicate with parents: Keep parents informed about school expectations and student progress and make staff reasonably accessible.
- Promote parent involvement: Offer parents opportunities to volunteer, participate in classrooms, or observe activities.
- High expectations: Maintain high expectations for staff, students and parents to increase student achievement

Parent/Guardian responsibilities

- Attend school regularly: Ensure the child is on time and attends school every day.
- Support learning at home: Set aside a consistent time and quiet place for homework, and provide the necessary materials.
- Monitor homework: Supervise homework completion and check that assignments are turned in on time.
- Engage with learning: Encourage reading daily, read with the child, and review all school-related information that comes home.
- Communicate with the school: Stay in regular communication with the teacher and promptly read notices from the school.
- Attend school functions: Participate in parent-teacher conferences and other school events whenever possible.

Student responsibilities

- Come to school every day ready to learn.
- Try my best on my classwork and homework.
- Listen and follow classroom and school rules.
- Read at home with a family member or on my own every day.
- Ask questions when I do not understand something.
